HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES INCLUDE HONOR FOR MAHONEY AND FORMER FACULTY

Jefferson City, MO- Lincoln University's weeklong Homecoming celebration this week includes four renaming ceremonies, including an honor for recently retired President Dr. Carolyn R. Mahoney. The first renaming of the Dr. Jabulani Beza International Program on Tuesday, October 9, will celebrate the service of the late Professor of Political Science and Criminal Justice. The event will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the Home Management Building, 926 E. Dunklin Street, which houses the international program.

Two ceremonies are planned for Friday, October 12, starting with the Dr. Linda L. Wyman Student Lounge dedication at 8:30 p.m. The renovated lounge on the 4th floor of Martin Luther King Hall is a tribute to the longtime Professor of English, who was so devoted to her work she taught her final class in an assisted living facility, just prior to her passing in 2011. Also on Friday, at 9 a.m., historian and Professor Emeritus Dr. Lorenzo Greene will be recognized with the renaming of Dr. Lorenzo J. Greene Hall, formerly the South Campus Building, 900 Leslie Boulevard. The late Greene's work from 1933 to 1972 brought national fame to the university through his teaching and research in African American history.

Dr. Carolyn R. Mahoney, the recently retired 18th President of Lincoln University, will be honored on Saturday, October 13, during the renaming of the Dr. Carolyn R. Mahoney Trail. The dedication is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. on the trail point just west of the 50 yard line, outside the fence at Dwight T. Reed Stadium. The trail, part of the city's greenway, runs through the campus. The Lincoln University Board of Curators voted in a special meeting on August 15 to dedicate the walking path to Mahoney who served the university and the community for seven years from 2005 to 2012.

Lincoln University Homecoming 2012: A Family Reunion runs through Sunday, October 14. A complete list of activities may be found online at http://www.lincolnu.edu/web/alumni/homecoming-2012.
