

Lincoln University provides assistance to students with disabilities. Documentation of disability needs to be on file with our office before requests can be granted. The information needs to be comprehensive which clearly describes your disability and must be diagnosed by the appropriate profession. In addition, recommendations or accommodations should be outlined in the documentation. The documentation may be returned with this form to expedite requests. All information is kept confidential. If you require special accommodation upon entering the University, please complete information below and return the form and documentation IMMEDIATELY to:

Cynthia L Washington, Coordinator for Disability Services
