

...to be held on the Lincoln University campus Scruggs University Center 820 Chestnut St. Jefferson City, MO 65101

Saturday, September 6, 2014

Garden tours and mixer 3 p.m. - 6 p.m. Dinner and presentations 6 p.m. - 9 p.m.

A full course dinner prepared with native edible plants and locally grown meat and produce will be served. Menu includes appetizers, entrée, salad, side dishes desserts and local wine samples.

Presentations

Native Edible Plants of Missouri

by Dr. Nadia Navarrete-Tindall, LUCE State Extension Specialist—Native Plants

Landscaping with Native Plants

by Bill Ruppert, Horticulture and Native Plants Champion

Registration: $25.00 per person (scholarships available) RSVP by Thursday, August 28, 2014

Send check with name, address, email and phone number payable to:

Lincoln University Cooperative Extension (LUCE) c/o Shirley Downing 900 Chestnut Street, Allen Hall Room 102 Jefferson City, MO 65101

For more information, scholarships, special accommodations, or if you are interested in having a booth, contact Amy Hempen by calling (573) 681-3553 or

email HempenA@LincolnU.edu

