LINCOLN UNIVERSITY PLANS ANNUAL FOUNDERS' DAY PROGRAM

Jefferson City, MO- Lincoln University will honor its founders during the annual Founders' Day Program on Thursday, February 9, at 11 a.m. in Robert and Charlene Mitchell Auditorium in Richardson Fine Arts Center. Dr. Adam Arenson, Haynes Foundation Fellow, Huntington Library and Assistant Professor of History, University of Texas at El Paso will serve as this year's speaker.

The university will also honor those employees who have or will retire during the current academic year, as well as those employees who have completed 25 years of service to the university. The 2012 Family of the Year will also be recognized. The Martin-Green Family has long connection with the university, beginning with the 18 years of service Mrs. Willie E. Martin Green devoted in the Student Union and Inman E. Page Library. All four of her children attended Lincoln University, with three of them graduating in 1967. Three of the Green grandchildren are also alumni.
