

Personnel Policies for Lincoln University

The guiding principle for these policies is The Rules and Regulation of Lincoln University • Chapter I University Governance: Structure and Functions • Chapter VI Administration and Finance • Chapter VIII University Employment • HRSHB 7.2

Effective November 13, 2009

Letter from the President

Rules and Regulations

Employees covered by this policy

This policy applies to all Faculty at LU and applicants of positions.

Credit Toward Probationary Period

Adjunct Handbook

Print using your browser's print function.

Faculty Handbook

Print using your Print using your browser's print function.

Staff Handbook

Print using your Print using your browser's print function.

Policy

Up to three years prior full-time service at the rank of instructor or above may be credited toward the probationary requirement. Any agreement to credit prior service must be stated in writing at the time of appointment. Whether and how much service to credit will depend on such factors as academic rank, prior tenure status, quality of prior service, and relevance of prior service to the requirements of the new position.

• UHRS ←

University Human Resource Services Revised July 9, 2009