

Hall of Fame

Mission and Purpose

The Lincoln University (MO) National Alumni Association Hall of Fame was officially established at the Mid-Winter Board Meeting of the Association in February 2000 in Kansas City, Missouri. The inaugural induction ceremony of seven outstanding alumni took place at the Association's National Convention in July 2001 in Kansas City, Missouri.

The Hall of Fame was established to recognize Lincoln University alumni, both living and deceased, who have distinguished themselves by outstanding achievement in their chosen field of endeavor. These individuals have distinguished themselves by their pioneering efforts, innovation and/or uniqueness. They have been recognized in their local community, nationally and sometimes internationally for their work. Other organizations, associations and/or educational institutions for their achievement of excellence have recognized all the inductees.

The Lincoln University Alumni Hall of Fame Room housed in Memorial Hall on the campus of Lincoln University is reserved for the distinct purpose of displaying the plaques honoring the inductees on the "Wall of Fame." Artifacts and memorabilia belonging to honorees may also be exhibited in this room.
