

BSEd in Elementary Education CORE 42 (Revised 1/21)

Name: _____ ID#: _____

Successful completion of the courses listed below, a successful admission score for the Educator Preparation Program (EPP), and the GPA requirements (2.75 overall; 3.0 in content area & professional education coursework) will entitle a person to receive the degree Bachelor of Science in Education (BSEd) with a major in Elementary Education and may lead to a MO certificate to teach grades 1-6.

The following courses are the General Education CORE 42 requirements of Lincoln University. Those marked with an *, indicate that students must have a grade of “C” or better.

For courses listed in this section with an E, students can choose an elective from the approved CORE 42 course list for that specific area or category (please see the CORE 42 General Education Advisement Worksheet). The courses listed in areas with an E are recommended based on preparing students for the state teacher certification assessments. See your advisor for more information on selecting a CORE 42 Elective.
