Subject: Timely Warning: Near Campus Incident

Importance: High

At approximately 10 a.m. this morning, the Jefferson City Police Department received a call of shots fired in the 1000 block of Elm Street, which is just north of campus. The incident involved a black Hyundai Sonata driven by a black female. The vehicle might have bullet holes in it. A black male subject wearing a black and gray jacket was seen running south toward Chestnut Street. There is no further description at this time.

The Lincoln University Police Department is currently assisting Jefferson City Police in locating the subjects and/or vehicle mentioned above. As always, be mindful of your surroundings and report any suspicious person or activity to the Lincoln University Police Department at 573-681-5555.
