Equal Employment Opportunity

Policy Statement

It is the policy of Lincoln University to promote and ensure equal employment opportunity for all persons regardless of race, color, sex, national origin, religion, age or disability.

Equal employment opportunity principles govern all aspects of the University’s personnel policies, employment practices, and operations. All phases of employment, including recruitment, hiring, evaluation, promotion, transfer, assignment, training, benefits and separation, shall be conducted in compliance with equal employment opportunity laws and regulations.

Department authorities and supervisors at all levels share the responsibility to ensure equal employment opportunity. All employees play an important role in maintaining an environment of equal opportunity, and must treat all colleagues with respect and professionalism.

Lincoln University agrees to comply with the federal laws prohibiting job discrimination as listed:

- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII), which prohibits employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin;
- the Equal Pay Act of 1963 (EPA), which protects men and women who perform substantially equal work in the same establishment from sex-based wage discrimination;
- the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (ADEA), which protects individuals who are 40 years of age or older;
- Title I and Title V of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), which prohibit employment discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities in the private sector, and in state and local governments;
- Sections 501 and 505 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities who work in the federal government; and
- the Civil Rights Act of 1991, which, among other things, provides monetary damages in cases of intentional employment discrimination.

The University has established a discrimination grievance procedure. This complaint and grievance procedure is for any type of alleged discrimination regarding job decisions, employment practices, and other terms of employment or privileges of employment based on age, disability, marital status, veteran status, national origin, race, religion or sex. Additionally, this complaint procedure pertains to a hostile work environment or harassment based on age, disability, marital status, veteran status, national origin, race, religion or sex. Any Lincoln University employee or job applicant has a right to file a complaint of discrimination. Please contact the Human Resource Office for information pertaining to the filing of a complaint.
