In Touch with Nature

Field Day at Lincoln University's Alan T. Busby Farm Jefferson City, Missouri

This is a free event and children accompanied by adults are welcome!

Date: Saturday, September 28, 2013

Time: 12:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Children exploring slippery salamanders and tadpoles.

Busby Farm is located at 5124 Goller Road (off US-54 W), Jefferson City, MO

Enjoy and learn from a diversity of exhibits, hands-on demonstrations and tours.

Learn about prairie restoration

All about bugs!

Environmental games/face painting

Petting zoo: chickens, goats, sheep, etc. Native plants for sale and food sampling Cooking demonstration with Dutch oven

MDC fish trailer MU raptors

Water critters

Wagon tours around the farm

For more information about this event and to register, please call, email or write to:
Shirley Downing at DowningS@LincolnU.edu or
Nadia Navarrete-Tindall Navarrete-TindallN@LincolnU.edu

Lincoln University Cooperative Extension Native Plants Program/In Touch With Nature 900 Chestnut Allen Hall Room 102 Jefferson City, MO 65101 (573) 681-5543

Directions to Busby farm: (from Columbia) head South on US-63, merge onto US-54 W/US-63 S via the ramp to Jefferson City. Continue to follow US-54 W for 7.9 miles. After passing Neighorn creek, take the left side of the road on a long hill. Turn left just at the crest of the road on Monticello Rd. (opposite small Phillips gas station) continue straight onto Goller Rd. Once on Goller Rd. look for signs and balloons. Look for signs to the cabins area.

Registration is requested but not required.

