

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT MISTY YOUNG

(573) 681-6032

May 2, 2012

ALUMNUS TO DELIVER CLASS OF 2012 COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Jefferson City, MO- Lincoln University alumnus Joe Outlaw will deliver the Commencement address to the Class of 2012 on Saturday, May 12, at Dwight T. Reed Stadium. A 1961 graduate of Lincoln University, Outlaw retired as President and CEO of Pen Trust Financial Services, a financial planning company, in San Diego, CA. He also has experience in real estate development and sports management. Outlaw has remained active with his alma mater, as he currently serves on the Lincoln University Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors. He was inducted into the Lincoln University Alumni Hall of Fame in 2004, and will be awarded an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters during Commencement.

Two Commencement related activities are scheduled for Friday, May 11. The ROTC Commissioning Ceremony will be held at 11 a.m. in Pawley Theater-Martin Luther King Hall. The Nurse Pinning Ceremony is slated for 7 p.m. in Robert and Charlene Mitchell Auditorium-Richardson Fine Arts Center.

###