2-3:45pm

Scruggs University Center Ballroom

819 Chestnut St.
Jefferson City, MO 65201

We will hear remarks from Dr. James Endersby, author of “Lloyd Gaines and the Fight to End Segregation”

Students, faculty, and staff will do a public reading of the Constitution and its amendments to inaugurate the event.

Contact Dr. Elizabeth Dorssom
dorssome@lincolnu.edu for details.

In this talk, Dr. Endersby will discuss the Lloyd Gaines case and the vital role played by the NAACP as they advanced a concerted strategy to produce political change.

In 1935, Lloyd Gaines' application to the University of Missouri Law School was denied, based solely on the grounds that the state's constitution called for "separate education of the races." Along with the NAACP, Gaines challenged the university's admissions policies in the nation's high court.

This event is generously supported by the Jack Miller Center.
