

ARD Research Symposium Abstract Format

Title	Body
• Capitalize all proper words. • Italicize genus and species • No footnotes • Bold all words in the title.	• Limit 250 words. • Give scientific name at first mention of the subject organism. • Do not cite references, figures, tables, probability levels, nor detailed results. • Refer to results only in the general sense. • use Times Romans font size 11 • single line spacing

Authors and Affiliations	Title, Authors and Affiliations Example
• Last name last • No first names • Only Initials. • * denotes presenter. • Avoid footnoting.	Screening Capsicum chinense Fruits of the World. G. F. Antonious*, Land Grant Program, Kentucky State University, Frankfort, KY 40101; J. C. Snyder, Department of Horticulture, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40546; and R. L. Jarret, USDA/ARS Plant Genetics Laboratory, Griffin, GA 30223.

Topic Areas...
• Plant Health and Production and Plant Products • Animal Health and Production and Animal Products • Food Safety, Nutrition and Health • Renewable Energy, Natural Resources, and Environment • Family, Youth, Community and Economic Development

Important

Please indicate if student post/oral presentation or scientist post/oral presentation.
Contact your Research Director for instructions on submitting your abstract.