

Kayla Allen: A Visionary Leader in Business Education and Development

Kayla Allen is not just an educator; she is a mentor and a catalyst for change in the world of business education and development. With a Master's degree in Business Administration and a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Lincoln University of Missouri, Kayla possesses a strong academic foundation that has laid the groundwork for her remarkable career journey.

Dedication to Education and Mentorship

Since embarking on her career path, Kayla has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to education and mentorship. Her tenure as an Assistant Professor of Business Administration at Lincoln University has been marked by her dynamic teaching style and extensive course offerings, including Introduction to Business, Personal Finance, and Small Business Management. Kayla has inspired countless students to reach their full potential and pursue their entrepreneurial aspirations.

Leadership in Business Development

Beyond the classroom, Kayla has made significant contributions to business development and entrepreneurship. As the Internship and Grow with Google Coordinator at Lincoln University's Office of Career Services, she has played a pivotal role in connecting students with valuable internship opportunities and resources to foster their professional growth. Her leadership in this capacity has been instrumental in empowering students to gain hands-on experience and explore diverse career pathways.

Engagement in Research and Program Development

Kayla's passion for advancing business education extends to her involvement in research and program development. Her groundbreaking research on topics such as ACBSP reaccreditation and entrepreneurship curriculum development reflects her dedication to enhancing the quality and relevance of business education.

Commitment to Professional Development

In addition to her academic and professional achievements, Kayla has an impressive array of certifications, including Quality Matters Independent Applying the QM Rubric (APPQMR) and ACBSP Standard Four: Student Learning Outcomes and Assessment, exemplifies her dedication to staying abreast of industry best practices and emerging trends in business education.

Community Engagement and Leadership

Outside of academia, Kayla is actively engaged in various professional associations and community organizations. As a member of Delta Mu Delta International Honor Society in Business and the Lincoln University National Alumni Association, she leverages her expertise and leadership skills to make a positive impact on the broader business community.