

Scott Seslar brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his role, with a distinguished career spanning over two decades in the field of accounting and education. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Wayne State University and a Masters in Taxation degree from Walsh College, renowned for its outstanding MST program.

Professional Accomplishments: Scott's professional journey is marked by a series of significant milestones, including:

Founding and managing his own successful CPA firm, Scott C. Seslar CPA, PC, for over twenty-six years, demonstrating his entrepreneurial spirit and leadership acumen.

Served as an Assistant Professor of Accounting at Alfred University, Shepherd University, and Warner University, where he honed his pedagogical skills and made impactful contributions to academic research.

Currently, as an Associate Professor of Accounting at Lincoln University, Scott continues to inspire and empower students with his extensive knowledge and passion for getting his accounting students jobs.

Areas of Expertise: Scott's proficiency extends across various domains, including taxation, e-learning, data analysis, instructional design, and public speaking. His multifaceted skill set enriches the learning experience for our students and enhances the academic environment within the department.

Exceptional Dedication and Work Ethic: Scott's dedication to his profession and unwavering commitment to academic excellence are evident in his tireless efforts to mentor students, conduct research, and foster a culture of continuous learning. His strong work ethic and integrity serve as a source of inspiration for colleagues and students alike.

Tax Tips Column: Scott's insightful contributions through his tax tips column offer invaluable guidance to the community, shedding light on complex tax matters in a clear and accessible manner. His recent column on medical and dental expenses exemplifies his expertise and dedication to educating others on pertinent financial topics.